

Feature #	Feature Description	Test Case #	Test Case Description	Fail/Pass?
1	The system shall allow a user to search for any album from any artist		1 The user is able to search for albums in the search bar at the top of the main activity where result appear below in a listview
			2 If the user tries to search for something that doesn't have an image path the main activity screen will create place holders for the images.
			3 If the user tries to search for something using invalid text, like only search commas or semicolons, the main activity will display a toast that says no results have been found.
2	The system shall allow a user to select an album from the list and rate it using a 5 star system and record their comments		1 If the user selects an album from the search list, they are brought to an activity where they can rate it, record their comments, and add it to their personal list
			2 If the user selects an album from their personal list, one that they have already rated or saved, they are able to update that information
3	The system shall allow users to add the album to their personal list		1 Users are able to select and album and add it to their personal list
			2 Users are able to delete an album from their personal list
4	The system shall allow users to share a single album rating through a text message which will include the album title, rating, and its comments		1 Users are able to press the share button and have a message that is generated using information from the database about that album which can be sent via text, or copied to the clipboard.
5	The system will have an activity that suggests a random album for users to listen to as well as similar artists via device shake		1 Users can shake the phone, and have a random album suggested in a new activity.	